3.0 OUR CUSTOMERS COUNT ON US TO DO THE RIGHT THING

3.1 OUR STAND AGAINST CORRUPTION

3.1.1 ANTI-BRIBERY GUIDE AND LAW

We are fully committed to the prevention of bribery and corruption and expressly prohibit our employees together with all persons and entities acting for and/or our behalf to be involved in bribery or corruption or any other improper conduct in business dealings irrespective of their nature and where they are performed.

As part of our continuous effort in preventing corruption, we have strengthened our internal control measures with more emphasis and focus given to our high-risk business activities which are susceptible to corruption and fraud. These initiatives are expected to institute a healthy business culture, which will contribute to the overall economic growth.

Any improper payment or receipt, including any offer or agreement to make or accept any form of facilitation payment, or “greasing”, or “enabling payment”, is strictly unacceptable.

Both AHG Group and our employees are subjected to anti-bribery legislation of Malaysia namely MACC Act, and any bribery law in the jurisdiction where AHG Group has business dealings.

Under the MACC Act, it is an offence to give, promise and/or offer a bribe, inducement or improper payment to anyone with the intention of obtaining a business advantage.

The penalties set out in the MACC Act, apply to both companies and individuals. Companies convicted under the MACC Act face penalties as stated under its Section 17A namely, a fine of not less than RM1 million or imprisonment of not exceeding 20 years or both.

Individuals if convicted will face penalties as stated under Section 24 of the MACC Act namely, a fine of not less than RM10,000 and imprisonment of not exceeding 20 years. Any future enhancement/revision made to this act shall be adopted accordingly.

3.1.2 MAKING FACILITATION PAYMENT

Facilitation payment is defined as payments made to secure or expedite the performance by a person performing a routine or administrative duty or function. Any offering or request to offer, has the same consequences as paying or receiving facilitation payments. Facilitation payment need not involve cash or other financial assets, it can be any sort of advantage with the intention to influence them in their duty. If an employee received or reportedly received a request or offered facilitation payments, he/she must immediately channel these reports accordingly to the Whistleblowing Committee of AHG Group in writing using the secured channels, such as email or post, containing a brief summary of the allegation.

3.0 OUR CUSTOMERS COUNT ON US TO DO THE RIGHT THING

We do not make or offer monetary or in-kind political contributions to political parties, political party officials or candidates for political office. Employees of AHG Group must not make any donation intended to procure political influence.

3.5 MANAGING GUESTS' ASSETS AND INFORMATION

Guests' personal and financial information is safeguarded at all times and not misused, except where disclosure has been authorised in writing by the guests or where such disclosure is required to be made to any relevant authority pursuant to any relevant laws or legal process. In relation to this, we have put in place the relevant systems, policies and procedures. Employees of AHG Group must not make improper use of guests' personal and financial information to gain an advantage for themselves or any other person or to cause detriment to guests.

We ensure only the servicing consultant, or an authorised officer has the access to customers' personal or financial information. They shall not disclose customers' personal and financial information to a third party unless prior written consent is given by the customers or when required by the authorities, pursuant to any court order or any written law, acquire or use any information in relation to customers or potential customers without proper authorization and disseminate or exchange any customer's personal or financial information with another distributor, consultant or a third party or request or procure any customer's personal or financial information from a third party, including another distributor or consultant.

3.0 OUR CUSTOMERS COUNT ON US TO DO THE RIGHT THING

To build a long-lasting relationship and remain relevant in the industry, we maintain and uphold our values, and stay true by treating our customers the way we want to be treated. Honesty, trust and integrity are key elements that play an important role in our daily dealings with customers, business counterparties (agents), and communities. We empower our customers to make informed decisions about the product and services we offer and in selecting the ones that best meet their needs and circumstances.

We strive to provide excellence and are committed to delivering quality service in all our business relationships and dealings.

In doing business professionally, with transparency, and utmost integrity, all appointed agents, suppliers and vendors must upon appointment sign the integrity agreement with AHG Group.

4.0 OUR CONDUCT IN DEALING WITH STAKEHOLDERS

The Establishment of PIP

At AHG Group, we are continuously striving to ensure all procurement processes are conducted with integrity, transparency, and good governance. The establishment of PIP & Due Diligence also yields other benefits such as greater transparency and accountability in contracting which shall indirectly reduce and eradicate corrupt practices, and enhancement of public confidence and trust.

The BOD, Committee Members, senior management and employees of AHG Group who are involved in the procurement activities are responsible and accountable to ensure that such execution of the declaration as specified in the PIP is undertaken as required. AHG Group suppliers and professional service providers are also required to execute the declarations under the PIP within the stipulated stages.

4.1 DUE DILIGENCE ON THIRD PARTIES

All parties providing services to or on behalf of AHG Group must ensure that their personnel assigned to AHG Group are aware that they have to comply with this CoBE in addition to AHG Group specific policies. Prior to appointment, the background due diligence screening will be conducted in order to ensure that we only do business with counterparties that have in place a proper code of conduct/ethics that binds them.

To promote healthy business practices, suppliers, vendors and all AHG Group counterparties must provide assurance and satisfactory confirmation on their background checks of their employees (including their affiliates' employees and their sub-contractors), prior to their assignment to AHG Group to ensure protection of our credibility and image while performing services, or when grant access to any AHG Group's information, technology systems, data, assets and branding. Background check will be done in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by, all applicable laws. We perform additional checks, as it deems appropriate. Any unauthorised use of information through grant access or gain from engagement could result in a violation of this CoBE.

4.2 ASSETS MANAGEMENT AND SALES & MARKETING

Rightful Information and Fair Treatment to All Business Associates and the General Public

Employees of AHG Group who act as the front liners' Sales Managers/Staff have the responsibility to communicate rightful information to customers at all times in order to instill public confidence and to protect the reputation of AHG Group. Information given must be accurate, timely and adequate information concerning the products must be given to assist customers in making an informed investment decision, including information contained in the prospectus disclosure document and product highlights sheet. Additionally, they must be competent and show fair treatment of customers, suppliers/contractors, vendors and the public

Feedbacks and Complaints Handling

We are open to customers' feedbacks and complaints and value their opinion as an input to our professional conduct. Listening to customers' voice helps us to create stronger bond and understanding. Customers' feedbacks also help us to improve our products and services and to do better.

All employees are responsible to attend to all feedbacks and complaints by providing an acknowledgement to the customer and clearly setting out next steps, and, where possible, to resolve at the first point of contact. All feedbacks and complaints are channeled and centralised at the respective division/department responsible for customer service operations.

4.0 OUR CONDUCT IN DEALING WITH STAKEHOLDERS

4.3 PROTECTION OF AHG GROUP'S ASSETS

FRAUD, FINANCIAL AND DOCUMENTARY INTEGRITY

We do not tolerate fraud and have established internal control measures to prevent, detect, report and investigate suspected frauds. Fraud usually involves some form of deceit, theft, trickery, or making false statements, with the objective of obtaining money or other form of benefits. This can have major consequences to us, and the individuals involved.

The following actions can be indications that a fraud has taken place:

- Forgery or alteration of documents;
- Misappropriation of assets of AHG Group, guests, suppliers or contractors;
- Unauthorised handling or reporting of business transactions of AHG Group;
- Falsification of company record or financial statements of AHG Group; and
- Failure to disclose information when there is a legal duty to do so.

The list above is non-exhaustive and subject to review, addition, and deletion from time to time.

We maintain proper records to meet our financial, legal and regulatory operational objectives and requirements in order to accurately record all transactions and dispositions of assets. All financial books, records and accounts are sufficiently detailed to:

- Permit the proper classification of transactions for financial reporting;
- Provide reasonable assurances that the transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles;
- Maintain accountability for the use of all assets; and
- Record all transactions in the accounting period in which they occurred.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

The observance for confidentiality demands high ethical standards in corporate dealings and reinforces public confidence.

You together with your business counterparties, agents and business representatives must keep confidential and never use proprietary information of AHG Group or proprietary information of other parties for personal gain or for the benefit of persons outside of AHG Group. The release (either deliberate or not) of any proprietary information to authorised third parties without appropriate controls and/or protection could cause significant harm to the business of AHG Group.

Proprietary information includes but not limited to financial information, employee information, strategic and operation plans, corporate organisation plans, audit material or reports, information regarding litigations or potential litigations, proposed transactions, copyrights, database rights, drawings and layouts, trademarks in documents, logos, designs and/or undertaken by AHG Group.

If your work requires you to discuss proprietary information of AHG Group with external parties, such discussion must certain extent only occur with the protection of a written confidentiality or non-disclosure agreement.

No one acting for and on behalf of AHG Group will solicit the proprietary information of another entity or will make use of proprietary information of another entity in conducting business for AHG Group.

4.0 OUR CONDUCT IN DEALING WITH STAKEHOLDERS

4.4 INTERNAL CONTROLS AND REPORTING

FINANCIAL AND NON-FINANCIAL CONTROLS

We adopt a clear separation of duties for all job functions either it is financially or non-financially. All jobs in most circumstances will have a three (3) or minimum two (2) layers of checking and verification. For reporting purposes, financial and investments related functions shall have the maker, checker, verifier, and approver. Additionally, we have the Governance Division of AHR and Internal Assurance Department of PNB that verify and check the compliance to regulations, ISO quality standards and the level of integrity in their reporting.

We adopted a three (3)-line of defence model for the management of all risk classes. The model distinguishes among functions that own and manage risk (first line of defence), functions that oversee risk and controls (second line of defence) and functions that provide independent assurance of the effectiveness of the control measures put in place to the senior management and BOD of PNB (third line of defence).

Any further corruption risk is mitigated by having multiple verification that expand from the head of properties and the committee members.

4.5 AVOIDANCE CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Business Relationship

You and your business counterparties, agents and business representatives must avoid conflict of interest situations arising between your private activities and personal interests, and your responsibilities owed to AHG Group

They must not accept directly or indirectly any personal gain, services or loans from a competitor, customer, supplier or contractor of AHG Group. A conflict may arise if they or any of their close associates receive benefits, other than the contractual benefits, as a result of their position with AHG Group. Any suspected conflict of interest must be declared in accordance with the relevant policies and procedures of AHG Group.

The potential situations that may be associated with conflict of interest in terms of personal benefit, personal interest and personal relationships are as follows:

- Outside appointment/business activities;
- Advisory board, board of directors or equivalent fiduciary roles;
- Unpaid professional activities for organisation that has relationship with AHG Group;
- Close relatives who work for organisations that have relationship or compete with AHG Group;

In addition, employees and directors whom due to their appointment and position, have in possession of any private Confidential Information, must be constantly mindful of the need and the importance of respecting confidentiality and must adhere to the principles of confidentiality and non-disclosure inherent in the AHG Group.

4.0 OUR CONDUCT IN DEALING WITH STAKEHOLDERS

4.6 CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY, DONATION AND SPONSORSHIPS

Any CSR, donation and sponsorship conducted must not be used as a conduit to circumvent, avoid or evade the laws. This shall not be used as a medium to facilitate fraud, illegal and money laundering activities. All CSR and donations must be carefully evaluated for legitimacy and not be made to improperly influence business outcome. The recipient of the donation must be of legitimate organization and due diligence must be applied to ensure the benefits reach the intended recipient whilst the programmes meet the intended objectives. No CSR, donation and sponsorship shall be made in accordance with the approval limits, to a beneficiary who is controlled or influenced by any political officials or are politically linked. Any donation to be contributed must be approved by the respective Head of Properties or the COO based on the Limit of Authority in CSR Policy of AHG Group.

As a guide, for a charitable payment to be considered acceptable, it should always be:

- Of a reasonable value, quantity and frequency;
- Of a nature that is relevant to the business and circumstances relating to AHG Group;
- Directly related to AHG Group's business interest;
- Permissible under the law and;
- Respectful to this CoBE

4.7 ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND ANTI-TERRORISM FINANCING

The AMLA Policy of the AHG Group provides the guidelines in conducting business with all other relevant parties. Under this policy, we will only conduct business with parties that are engaged in legitimate business activities, with funds derived from legitimate sources.

We perform due diligence on all new clients to ensure the integrity and ethical aspects of their business and also undertake the following actions:

- Perform the Business-based Risk Assessment on the clients and determine their risk appetite level.
- Perform the Relationship-based Risk Assessment to determine the risk parameter for customers profiling.
- Formulate, implement and apply the business and customer risk management and mitigation control.

5.0 OUR CONDUCT IN DEALINGS WITH PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND REGULATORS

5.1 COMPLIANCE CULTURE

Being a subsidiary of a regulated licensed institution, we are obligated to comply with the laws and regulations under which we operate. It is fundamental to whom we are and any violations, or engagement in unfair, deceptive and abusive act/practices may weaken customers' confidence and put our reputation at risk. In addition, we are subject to the requirements of the MOTAC and the requirements of the regulatory bodies such as the Companies Commission Malaysia and MACC.

5.2 DEALINGS WITH PUBLIC OFFICIALS

We have always maintained transparent and fair relationships with government agencies and public officials. Public officials mean individuals having public official functions or acting in a public official capacity. Any business relationship with AHG Group involving interest of a public official who otherwise has a direct relationship with AHG Group, and which interest are not prohibited by AHG Group's Code of Conduct, requires disclosure. In addition, management's specific approval for establishing business relationships with such customers must be obtained at the appropriate committee level.

All employees of AHG Group are prohibited from paying for non-business travel, entertainment and hospitality for any public official or his/her family members at any amount without the permission from the COO. If approval is obtained, employee must ensure the gifts are allowed as per the gift, hospitality and entertainment policy of AHG Group and not excessive and lavish and must be commensurate with the official designation of the public official and not his personal capacity.

5.3 DEALINGS WITH REGULATORS

We strive to build transparent relationship with the regulators and deal in an open, co-operative and timely manner. Certain departments within AHG Group may be subjected to formal or informal queries, and examination by regulators, authorities and government agencies. In this event, employees need to understand proper procedures in engaging with regulators, and to comply with certain necessary approvals.
